ADDENDUM 1: Ryde Corporate Account

I. INTERPRETATION

All capitalised terms but undefined terms used herein shall bear the same meaning as those defined in the Terms of Use and the Ryde Privacy Policy (accessible at <https://rydesharing.com/privacy-policy/>).

This Addendum forms part of the Ryde Privacy Policy. In the event of any inconsistency between the Ryde Privacy Policy and this Addendum, this Addendum shall prevail.

II. RYDE'S RELATIONSHIP WITH USERS AND CLIENTS

- How Ryde for Business Works

Ryde for Business is provided as an add-on feature to facilitate corporate billing for the Authorised Users' use of Ryde's Services in the course of work.

When an organisation ("Client") chooses to utilise the corporate account, the Authorised User is given the option of tagging his/her rides or other transactions to the Client or to tag it as a personal ride. An Authorised User is referred to in the Ryde Privacy Policy as a passenger.

As part of this feature, Ryde will disclose detailed trip and booking information that Authorised Users have tagged as being for business purposes to the Client. Apart from this, Ryde does not disclose other Personal Data of its Authorised Users to the Client.

Alternatively, an individual user may choose to set up a corporate account profile within the App to facilitate the tagging of business-related rides and to generate consolidated trip reports to facilitate the submission of claims from his or her employer. When used in this mode, the claims process is user-driven and the user's employer need not be a Client.

For ease of reference, Authorised Users and individual users will each be referred to as a "User" and collectively as "Users" in this Addendum.

Ryde is a data controller, so are our Clients

In respect of any User and the processing of all their Personal Data (including but not limited to Linking Data and Portal Data), Ryde acts as a data controller. For further information on how Ryde collects, uses and discloses Users' Personal Data, please refer to the Ryde Privacy Policy.

Due to the way Ryde's Corporate Account works, Ryde does not process any Personal Data for and on behalf of the Client. Accordingly, Ryde is not the data processor of the Client, but an independent data controller in respect of all Personal Data that it processes in the course of providing Ryde's Corporate Account feature. Likewise, the Client is an independent data controller of the Personal Data (e.g. the Linking Data and Portal Data) that it discloses to and/or receives from Ryde.

As independent controllers, Ryde and the Client individually determine the purposes and means of processing Personal Data, subject to the provisions set out in the Terms of Use and this Privacy Policy. Ryde and the Client are also individually responsible to ensure the protection of Personal Data under their charge.

III. WHAT PERSONAL DATA IS COLLECTED, PROCESSED AND DISCLOSED

- full name;
- business email address; and
- other identifying information about the Authorised User as reasonably requested by Ryde;

Ryde will use this information for the purposes of:

- authenticating the User;
- where applicable, linking the Authorised User's account with the Client's Ryde for Business or tracking the Authorised User's business profile bookings on the Apps, as the case may be;
- where applicable, verifying the Corporate Billing status of such Authorised User from time to time; and
- contacting the User in accordance with the purposes set out in the Ryde Privacy Policy.

Upon onboarding such a User to the App, Ryde will process the Personal Data of the User in accordance with the Ryde Privacy Policy and this Addendum.

What Ryde discloses to its Clients

Ryde will disclose relevant trip and booking information as determined by Ryde from time to time to the Client to facilitate Corporate Billing.

What Ryde discloses to its individual user

Depending on the business profile settings selected by the individual user, the user may retrieve and generate reports containing his/her relevant trip and booking information.

IV. PARTIES' OBLIGATIONS

The Client and Ryde shall each:

- individually inform their data subjects of how each processes Personal Data and allow their data subjects to exercise their rights under the local data protection/data privacy laws;
